| 2000 | Paragraph deleted.   |

1989 5. No elector shall nominate more than the number of representatives required for his or her own Order.

6. So soon as the time for receiving nominations shall have expired the President shall announce the number of nominations received of each Order and shall cause a list of the names to be affixed to the notice board of Synod.

7. If the number nominated of either Order shall not exceed the number required to be elected, the President shall forthwith declare the persons so nominated to be duly elected.

8. If the number nominated of either Order shall exceed the number required to be elected the President shall forthwith determine at what time an adjournment shall be made in order that such ballots as may be necessary to complete the election may take place and shall direct the necessary ballot papers to be prepared for the election.

1989 9. Each elector present shall vote for the full number of representatives of his or her Order required when a ballot is taken.

10. Each ballot shall take place in the presence of the President of the Synod who shall appoint scrutineers and shall declare after each ballot the number of votes given for each candidate.

11. (1) No candidate shall be elected unless s/he shall have received a majority of the votes of the electors present of his/her Order.

2000 (2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) hereof the two Clerical members out of those nominated and the three Lay members out of those nominated for whom the greatest number of votes shall have been given in their respective Orders shall be deemed to be and shall be declared to be elected.

(3) If by reason of an equality of votes between two or more of the candidates who shall have received a majority of the votes of the electors present of their Order it shall be impossible to decide which candidates have been elected then such lesser number for whom the greater number of votes shall have been given shall be deemed to be and shall be declared to be elected and a new ballot shall be taken among the candidates polling an equal number of votes to decide which of them shall be elected.

12. If a ballot by either Order shall not result in the election of the required number of members for that Order, the President shall strike out the names at the bottom of the poll, so as to leave not less than twice as many names as the number required to be elected, and the names so remaining shall be submitted for a further ballot

PROVIDED that the number of votes cast for the names so struck out shall not exceed half the number of the electors present, and that no name shall be struck out for which the number of votes cast shall be equal to those for any name still retained in the ballot.

1999 13. In the event of a casual vacancy an election shall be held by members of the Standing Committee, of the same order, to fill the vacancy. The new member so elected shall hold office until the next biennial election.

14. Any question in connection with the election, which is not herein provided, shall be settled forthwith by the Synod.

2004 15. In the event that any elected member of the General Synod/te Hinota Whanui is prevented from attending any meeting of the General Synod/te Hinota Whanui the members of Standing Committee of the same order may appoint an alternate representative of that order to attend that meeting of the General Synod/te Hinota Whanui.
